PRESIDENT ENTERTAINS AT A DINNER TONIGHT

Last Official Appearance of Secretaries Shaw and Hitchcock, Who Retire on Monday, and First of Ambassador Bryce.

The President and Mrs. Roosevelt will give a dinner of twenty-eight covers this evening in the White House, which will probably mark the last official appearance of the Secretary of the Treasury and Mrs. Shaw, and the Secretary of the Interior and Mrs. Hitchcock, both of these Secretaries retiring from the cabinet on March 4. It will also probably mark the first appearance, officially, of the newly arrived Ambassador from Great Britain and Mrs. Bryce.

The German Ambassador and the Baroness von Scharburg were hosts at a dinner last evening in the embassy on Massachusetts avenue. The list of guests included the Vice President, Mrs. Lister, the Hon. Maude Pauncefoot, Secretary of the Interior, and Mrs. Hitchcock, Mr. and Mrs. Kepp, Mr. Marshall Field, the Viscount de Chambrun, Mr. Berry, Mr. Higgins, of the British embassy; Miss Root, Miss Wetmore, Miss Gwynne, Miss Williams, Miss Scott, the Hon. Maude Pauncefoot, Captain and Mrs. Hebbings, of the German embassy; Mr. Radowicz, and Mr. von Schubert, of the German embassy force.

The Japanese Ambassador and the Viscountess Aoki entertained a distinguished company at dinner last evening, complimentary to the Ambassador from Austria-Hungary and Baroness Hengstler. Invited to meet them were the Secretary of War and Mrs. Tatt, Senator Warren, Mrs. Robley D. Evans, the Danish minister, Lieutenant and Mrs. Timmons, Captain and Mrs. Ryan, of the British embassy; Lieutenant Commander and Mme. de Blampine, of the French embassy; Capt. and Mrs. Richardson, of the Norwegian legation; Major Tanaka, of the Japanese embassy staff; the Count and Countess Hatzfeldt, Miss Hunt, and Mr. Hanthara.

Mr. Justice and Mrs. Thomas H. Anderson were hosts last night at a dinner when they entertained a large company complimentary to the Secretary of the Treasury and Mrs. Shaw, and the Secretary of the Interior and Mrs. Hitchcock. Among the guests were Senator and Mrs. Dryden, Senator and Mrs. Bullock, Senator and Mrs. Hopkins, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Hale, Senator Perkins, Mrs. Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Wood, of New York, Mr. and Mrs. Hennen Jennings, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Bell, Mr. William Kepp, Admiral Schley, Colonel Raspoiff, Mr. Stanley Matthews, Mr. Hemphill, and Colonel and Mrs. Denny.

Miss Ada N. Harding and Walter B. Wallich were married last evening in the home of R. Mulling, at Randle Highlands. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Mulling, and after the ceremony a wedding supper was served in the dining room. A small company of personal friends and relatives attended the ceremony, including the brother-in-law and sister of the bridegroom, Mr. and Mrs. Milton C. Hall, Mr. Wallich is connected with the East Washington Traction Railway Company, and for the present Mr. and Mrs. Wallich will make their home at Randle Highlands.

Mr. and Mrs. William Phelps Eno had as their guests at dinner last night Mr. Justice Moody, Mrs. C. B. Wood, of New York, Miss Grace Allen, also of New York, Mr. and Mrs. Hennen Jennings, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Bell, Mr. William Kepp, Admiral Schley, Colonel Raspoiff, Mr. Stanley Matthews, Mr. Hemphill, and Colonel and Mrs. Denny.

The Minister from Norway and Mme. Hagen entertained at dinner last night complimentary to the Mexican Ambassador and Mme. Creel. Invited to meet them were Mrs. John W. Foster, Admiral O'Neill, Mrs. Pinchot, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Glover, Mr. Ferguson, Capt. and Mrs. Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Wood, Mr. Albert L. Key, Mrs. Paine, Mr. Butler, Mrs. Robert Hineckley, and Captain Fowler, of the French embassy.

The Honorable Maude Pauncefoot, who has been the guest of Mr. Richard Townsend for several weeks, will go to New York today, where she will visit Miss Kate B. Rice and other friends. She will return to Washington before sailing for Europe.

Mrs. J. Harry Broome, of Baltimore, is on a month's visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William W. Bokman, 1508 U street, where she will be pleased to see her friends.

Mrs. John W. Foster was the guest of honor at luncheon yesterday in her home at Dupont Circle.

Mrs. Lister entertained a large company at luncheon yesterday in her home on Dupont Circle.

Mrs. Dryden, wife of Senator Dryden, will receive this afternoon for the last time this season, and will leave Washington early next week with the Senator for Atlantic City.

Mr. Robert N. Harper was hostess yesterday afternoon for a large company at luncheon followed by a bridge.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Walsh and Miss Walsh, who are spending the spring season abroad are registered at the "Hermitage," Monte Carlo.

Routland Hall, the old colonial home of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Routland, near Frederick, Md., was the scene of a very pretty wedding, when their daughter, Miss Lillie Isabelle Nash, became the bride of William Wallace McKaig, of Cumberland, Md., at noon yesterday.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. William J. Kane, the interior of Routland Hall, which is a handsome colonial dwelling and one of the many old homes of Maryland, was beautifully decorated for the wedding. The immense hall was decorated with palms and Easter lilies. The ceremony of the drawing room was pink and green, and the dining room was in red. The entire house was lighted with candles. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Minnie Nash, Louis E. Bell, of Uniontown, Pa., was best man. After the ceremony a breakfast was served by Kauscher.

The bride is descended from the old French families of Laced, Chanteau, and Dupin. The groom is a member of the distinguished McKaig family, of Cumberland. He is the son of Mr. Wm. McKaig, president of the Cumberland Steel Company.

Among those present were: Roosevelt, Schuyler, S. K. Newman and Cordova de Garza, of New York, and the Misses Smith, of Washington.

Mrs. Byron Andrews entertained at a luncheon yesterday afternoon in her apartment in the Mendota in honor of her house guest, Mrs. E. S. Carroll, of Buffalo, who will remain with her until Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Scott, Jr., have returned from their bridal trip of a month spent in the mountains.

The Minister from Nicaragua and Madame Corea are spending their honeymoon in the country home of the bride's parents, "Oak View," at Woodley Lane. This is one of the most attractive of the summer homes about Washington, and was the first summer home of President and Mrs. Cleveland. It was known in war times as "Red Top," and was used as headquarters by several officers during the "Oak View" war, at Woodley Lane. The house, but did not change the color of the roof, but Colonel and Mrs. Fleming changed it considerably. They purchased it in 1890, and have made it quite modern and most attractive. They did not occupy the place last summer as they were all traveling in Europe. After a few weeks the minister and his bride will be established in the legation, 206 O street, and will take an important part in the social affairs of the spring season.

The Andover Alumni Association of the District of Columbia is holding a number of meetings in honor of the principal of the school, Mr. Alfred E. Stearns, who was graduated from Andover in the class of '82. Last evening the association, of which Mr. Stearns is president, entertained informally at dinner for Mr. Stearns, as the minister is still in mourning. Prof. George L. Raymond, '84, gave a luncheon for Mr. Stearns today at the Cosmos Club, to which a number of the prominent educational men of Washington were invited. The Commissioner of Patents and Mrs. Allen will give a dinner this evening in honor of Mr. Stearns, and George Xavier McLanahan has invitations out for a large reception to be held at his residence, 301 Q street, this evening where the members of the Washington Andover Alumni Association, the parents of the Washington boys who are now at the school, and Mr. Stearns will be entertained.

LADY OF ACCOMPLISHMENTS. Miss Marguerite R. Frink has been appointed to fill a professorship in the Colorado State Agricultural College while the regular incumbent, Prof. Howell, is in New York city taking courses in Columbia University. Miss Frink has studied the details of dairying and is an expert on cheesemaking. The young members of the society hold her in great demand. She is fond of sports and she can ride a horse like a cowboy. In Denver University she was the business and social leader of her class and managed successful amateur theatricals.

A PERSEVERING LADY. Ex-Queen Liliuokalani is still trying to get payment from the United States for the crown lands taken from her at the time of the revolution in Hawaii.

MRS. FEARN WILL VISIT CINCINNATI

Guest of Mrs. Longworth Interested in Her Work for Blind.

Mrs. Walker Fearn, whose charming stereoscopic lecture on the beloved Queen of Rumania, known all over the world as "Carmen Sylva," and her original and great work for the betterment of the condition of the blind people of Rumania, has created much interest in Washington, left today for Cincinnati, where she will be the guest of Mrs. Nicholas Longworth, mother of Representative Longworth, for two weeks or more.

Mrs. Longworth has but just returned to her home in Cincinnati, after a visit in Washington, where she was the guest of her son and daughter-in-law, and spent some time with Mrs. Nicholas Anderson, who is a relative. Mrs. Fearn will continue through the South from Cincinnati, visiting the cities in Kentucky, for south as Louisiana, west and north to Kansas and Canada, and will return here from the latter place by way of the States. She will give her beautiful and instructive lecture, which is sure to touch a vein of human interest in every place.

Mrs. Hohmann, of Johnstown, Pa., was guest of honor at luncheon Tuesday at the home of Mrs. McKaig, of Mayville, Ky., now attending Washington College, and Miss Nellie Henderson, now at the National Park Seminary.

The wedding of Miss Ella Steiner and Louis Bush will take place in this city on Sunday evening, March 3.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sommers, of 305 M street northwest, will be at home Sunday, March 3, from 4 to 10 o'clock, in honor of the confirmation of their son Herbert.

The L'ionians will give their annual dance this evening at Dyer's Hall.

Miss Elsa Coblentz has returned to her home, after a trip to New York and Boston.

Mrs. Sydney H. Reizenstein, of the Dupont, entertained at a dinner yesterday afternoon, in honor of her niece, Miss Rita Wolfman, of Streator, Ill. The prizes were won by Miss Clara Lorraine Tuck, of New York city; Miss Maude Garner, of Newport News, Va.; Miss Nellie C. Kaufman, of New York city. The guests were entertained in the dining room. The table was decorated in pale pink, with a centerpiece of pale carnations, ribbon and tulips. Those present were Miss Kaufman, Miss Tuck, Miss Garner, Miss Ada Foster, of Winchester, Va.; Miss Helen Krohn, of Cincinnati; Miss Alice Barth, Miss Esther Behrend, Miss Juanita Kaufman, Miss Ruth Hahn, Miss Edith Aubrecht, Miss Berdie Einstein, of Baltimore, and Miss Helene D. Engel.

MRS. JAMES L. STAFFORD DIES AFTER BRIEF ILLNESS

Mrs. Laura Stafford, wife of James L. Stafford, an employee in the general offices of the Pennsylvania system, Sixth street depot, died yesterday morning at the family residence, 48 Eighth street southwest, after a brief illness. She was twenty-one years old and had been married a little more than a year. Mrs. Stafford was the daughter of John and Margaret George, formerly of Fredericksburg, Va. Most of her life was spent in this city. She was a popular and active member of the younger set of the section of the city in which she resided and a communicant of Kendall Baptist Church, Ninth, between B and C streets southwest. Owing to the illness of the grandmother of Mrs. Stafford, the funeral will be private and will be held at the house Friday afternoon. The burial will be in Congressional cemetery.

Mrs. Stafford is survived by her husband and parents.

MYERS HOUSE IS LEASED BY MCKINLEY

Will Transfer Scene of Dinners to Fairgust Square.

Representative William B. McKinley has taken the house of Miss Catherine Walden Myers, daughter of the late General Myers, U. S. A., 919 Farragut square. This is a handsome residence built upon the end of the lot of the well-known Myers house, corner of I and Farragut square. Miss Myers has been in Europe for some years, and the house has been vacant.

Representative McKinley has his niece, Miss McKinley and Miss Mattis, as hostesses, and is becoming a famous dinner host, especially for picturesque and spectacular functions.

Representative and Mrs. J. Sloat Fasset of New York have purchased the home of Rear Admiral and Mrs. McGowan, 129 N street.

Representative and Mrs. Sloat occupied the home of Mr. and Mrs. McLanahan, on Twenty-first street, during their residence here.

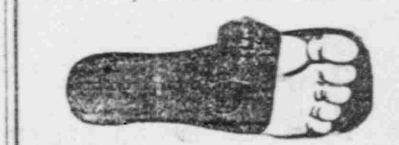

Mrs. S. P. Shaler, widow of the late Prof. Nathan Shaler, of Harvard, will join the winter residents of Washington, and is having plans made for a handsome home on Sheridan Circle, which is coming to the front as the most desirable section for the building of the homes of the smart set.

Mrs. Jules Demomet was hostess yesterday at a luncheon of forty covers, followed by bridge. Mrs. Demomet will be at home today and Thursdays in March.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Morris, of Seventeenth street, held a reception in honor of the thirty-sixth anniversary of their marriage, on Tuesday evening, when they were assisted in receiving by their daughters, Misses Mildred, Belle, and Hortense Morris.
